

Teaching Sequence

Term 4 – Geography – Hot and Cold Places

What do we already know?

Flashback Friday - Prior knowledge , key questions, Key Geography vocabulary. Assessment opportunity.

Place Knowledge – What weather do we experience in England?

Types of Weather.
Seasonal weather.
Geographical vocabulary .

Locational Knowledge & Human, Physical and Environmental Geography – What parts of the world are different?

Arctic and Antarctic
North and South Poles
Hot regions
Use comparative language.

Place Knowledge – What is the weather like there?

Compare to weather in the UK
Use comparative language.
What animals live in different places?

Place Knowledge – How do people live in different places?

How the weather affects daily life.
Crops and animals.
Modes of transport.

ASSESSMENT FOCUS

Can I identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom including knowing which is the hottest and coldest season in the UK and knowing and recognising main weather patterns?

Can I identify hot/cold regions in the world and talk about the sort of animals that live there?

Teaching Sequence

Term 4 – Geography – Uganda

What do we already know?

Flashback Friday - Prior knowledge , Location, Physical and Human Features, Assessment opportunity.

Locational Knowledge – Where is Uganda?

Locate on a world map.
How many miles away from UK?
How long would it take to fly?
Northern and Southern Hemispheres.

, Place Knowledge & Human, Physical, Environmental Geography & Geographical skills and fieldwork – What are the human and physical features?

Different cities, towns.
Mountains, lakes, Rivers, National Parks.
Compare to Swindon.

Place Knowledge – What is the climate like?

Compare to UK
Opposite seasons - why is this?

Place Knowledge – What crops are grown in Uganda?

Crops
Food miles
Fair trade

Place Knowledge – Why would someone visit Uganda?

Tourism
Child of Hope

ASSESSMENT FOCUS

Can I locate Africa, Uganda and, Mbale?
Can I describe the physical features of Mbale, Uganda and contrast this to Swindon?
Can I describe how life is different in Mbale?